

Simultaneous Fork Positioners

Load Protectors used for forklifts can help reduce pricey chipping, scuffing, marring and scratching by providing a cushioned non-slip surface between the blades and cargo. These types of accessories can be moulded according to OEM specifications from premium polyurethane. It is really fast to install the Load Protectors since they fit right over the standard forklift forks utilizing mounting hardware.